On October 24, 1978, the 1979 Senior Powder Puff team made RHS history. They were the first team to win four games consecutively. With touchdowns by Regina Carroll, Brenda Williams, Jackie Conley, Brenda Feltrop, and Barb Brown the final score was Sr.-Frosh. 32 and Jr.-Soph. 0. During half-time, the RHS Marching Band performed their version of the contest show, and Mike Keen was crowned the 1978 Powder Puff Queen.

Here Comes the Sun

The 1978 Homecoming festivities, which took place Oct. 5-7, included a bon-fire and parade on Thursday, a ball game on Friday, and a dance on Saturday. With the parade came competition among the classes in the form of a float contest. The Juniors took first place; Freshmen, second place; Latin Club, third place; Sophomores, fourth place; Seniors, fifth place.

During half-time the queen candidates were introduced. The classes were represented by Freshman candidates, Kim Newman and Cathrine Evans; Sophomore candidates, Sally Thompson and Susie Secrest; Junior candidates, Anne Holland and Dana Dooley; and Senior candidates, Cindy Gustin and Brenda Williams. The candidates were escorted by seniors. Paula Gordon, 1977 Homecoming Queen, crowned Brenda Williams the 1978 Homecoming Queen.

The final score of the HOmecoming game was Huntington High 21, Russell 3.

"Brick Yard Boogie" provided the music at the dance. The queen, Brenda Williams, and her date, Bill Jenkins, led the queen's dance to "Here Comes The Sun."

Couples take time to watch others dance.

Lori Laughner and Jeff Hensley have their picture taken.

Brian Caniff and Barb Clark stop for a coke during the dance.

"Brick Yard Boogie" provided the music for the Homecoming dance.

QUEEN'S COURT: Catherina Evans, Sally Thompson, Dana Dooley, Queen Brenda Williams, Cindy Gustin, Anne Holland, Susie Secrest and Kim Newman.

Sherry Mullins and Paul Gillum enjoy the band.

Snowball Becomes a New Tradition

Mark Mellinger and Wendy Picton enjoy each other's company at the Snowball Dance.

Snow, the first of the year, set the scene for the Snowball Dance. The surprise D.J., Chuck Bartle, started the snowball rolling at 8:00 on December 9, 1978.

Sound Impulse provided the sound equipment for the evening's entertainment. A group from Russell High, "A Taste of Grass", also made a good showing with a few bluegrass songs.

Allison Wallenfelsz and Bryant Carroll take over the dance floor.

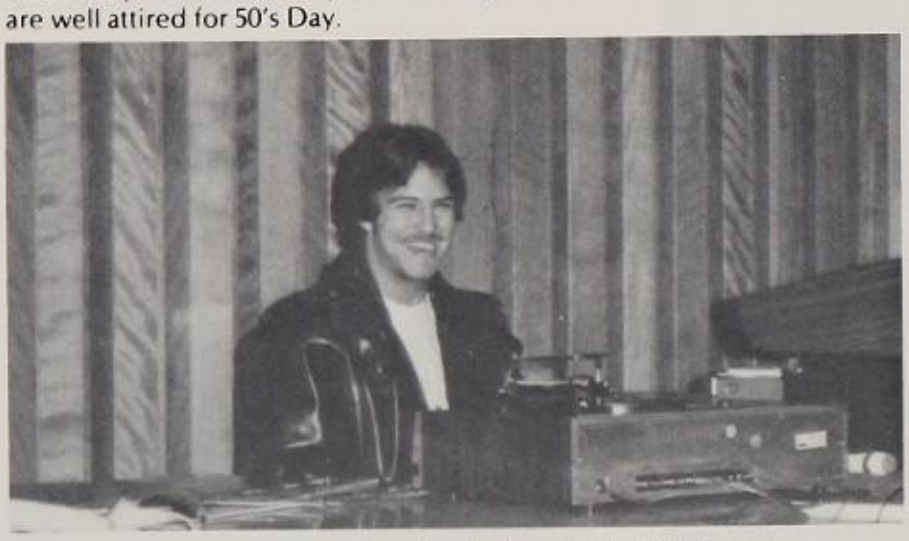
Teddy Boyd and Lisa Williams dance to the ever popular, most played, "Le Freak".

Cindy Stevens keeps the beat, along with the attention of Mike Peffer.

Steve Bennett and Jeri Carter dance to the music provided by Sound Impulse.

The Jitterbug Comes Alive at Russell

Freshmen, Wendi Eversole, Laura Brown, Beth Blazer, and Jean Ann Ward, are well attired for 50's Day.



David Bolte poses as a disc jockey for the 50's Dance.

Susie Secrest and Bill Cyrus discover that "Jitterbugging" is as much fun as today's disco.

Nancy McConnell and Larry Koster retire from the dance floor to share a quiet moment together.

Bobby socks, greased hair, and a night filled with fun were the objects of reminiscence at this year's fifties day and dance.

Russell students prepared for their version of the 1950's by searching their closets to assemble their unique outfits which were unveiled on January 20. The girls were attired in pleated skirts, sweaters, ponytails, bobby socks, and saddle oxfords. The boys went more for the "FONZ" look with T-shirts, leather jackets and the greased back "ducktail."

This fun-filled dance, which was sponsored by the class of '79, once again proved to be a large success. Both fifties and seventies music was featured as the jitter-bug interceded with disco.

Alec Jones and Christi Norris were the best dressed couple on 50's Day.

Lisa Church realizes that once again she is tardy for journalism class.

Girls Gladly Take Pick of the Crop

Daisy Mae (Tammy Endicott), Lil' Abner (Denny Locey), and Marryin' Sam (Rev. Jim McKenzie) pose for a "pitchur."

March 16 was the night which the girls did, indeed, gladly choose from the pick of the crop. The Sadie Hawkins Dance, held annually at Russell, once again provided a way for "Daisy Mae's" and "Lil' Abner's" to spend an easy going evening with their dates. This dance, which is sponsored by F.H.A., proved to be one of the students' favorites.

The Sadie Hawkins Dance makes a gal realize that it takes more courage than one might imagine for a guy to find the words, "I thought maybe if you don't already have a date . . ."

Barb Clark and Brian Caniff "disco" the night away.

Ann Beth McConnell and Chris Worthington get "hitched" until midnight.

Mark Campbell, Jon Fout, Kelly Justice, and Matt Wright relax and watch the dance floor.

Paula Gordon Reigns as

QUEEN'S COURT: Paige Kenney, Suzanne Dunn, Susie Secrest, Paula Gordon, Jackie Conley, and Carolyn Britton.

Many couples enjoy the music at the dance.

February 10, 1979, 8:00, Russell High School student union: the music, which was provided by Sound Impulse, got the couples moving and set the pace for the rest of the evening.

At 10:00 the tension grew as the candidates for Queen were asked to go to the stage. Paula Gordon was crowned the 1979 Sweethearts Queen.

Jeff Allie and Amy Baylor were just one of the many couples who found something to smile about.

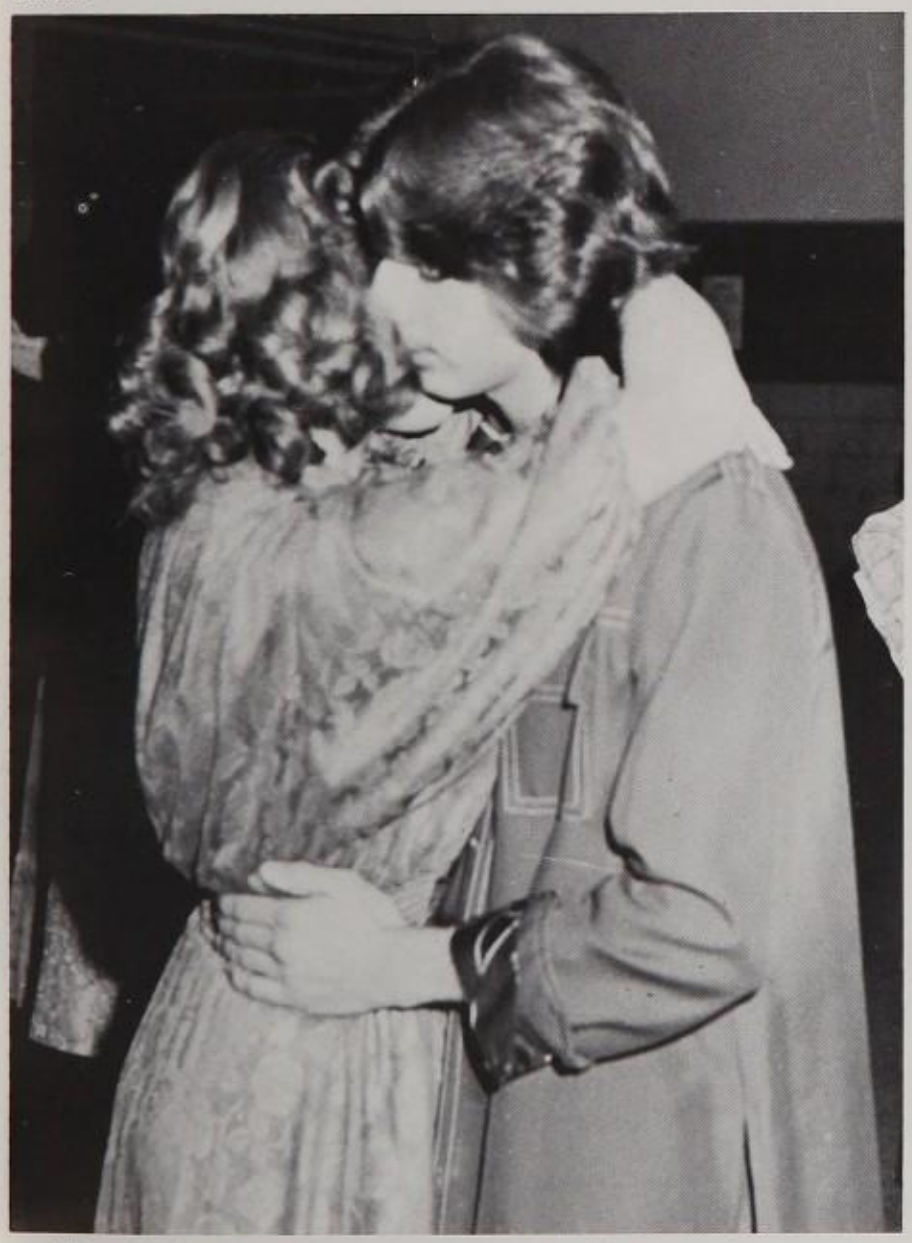
Terry Blankenship and Frank Heberlin move easily across the dance floor.



Richard Sala and Beth Russell dance to one of the many slow songs.

Two couples, Chuck Bartle and Diane Roe, Carolyn Britton and Barry Elswick, laugh as they dance.

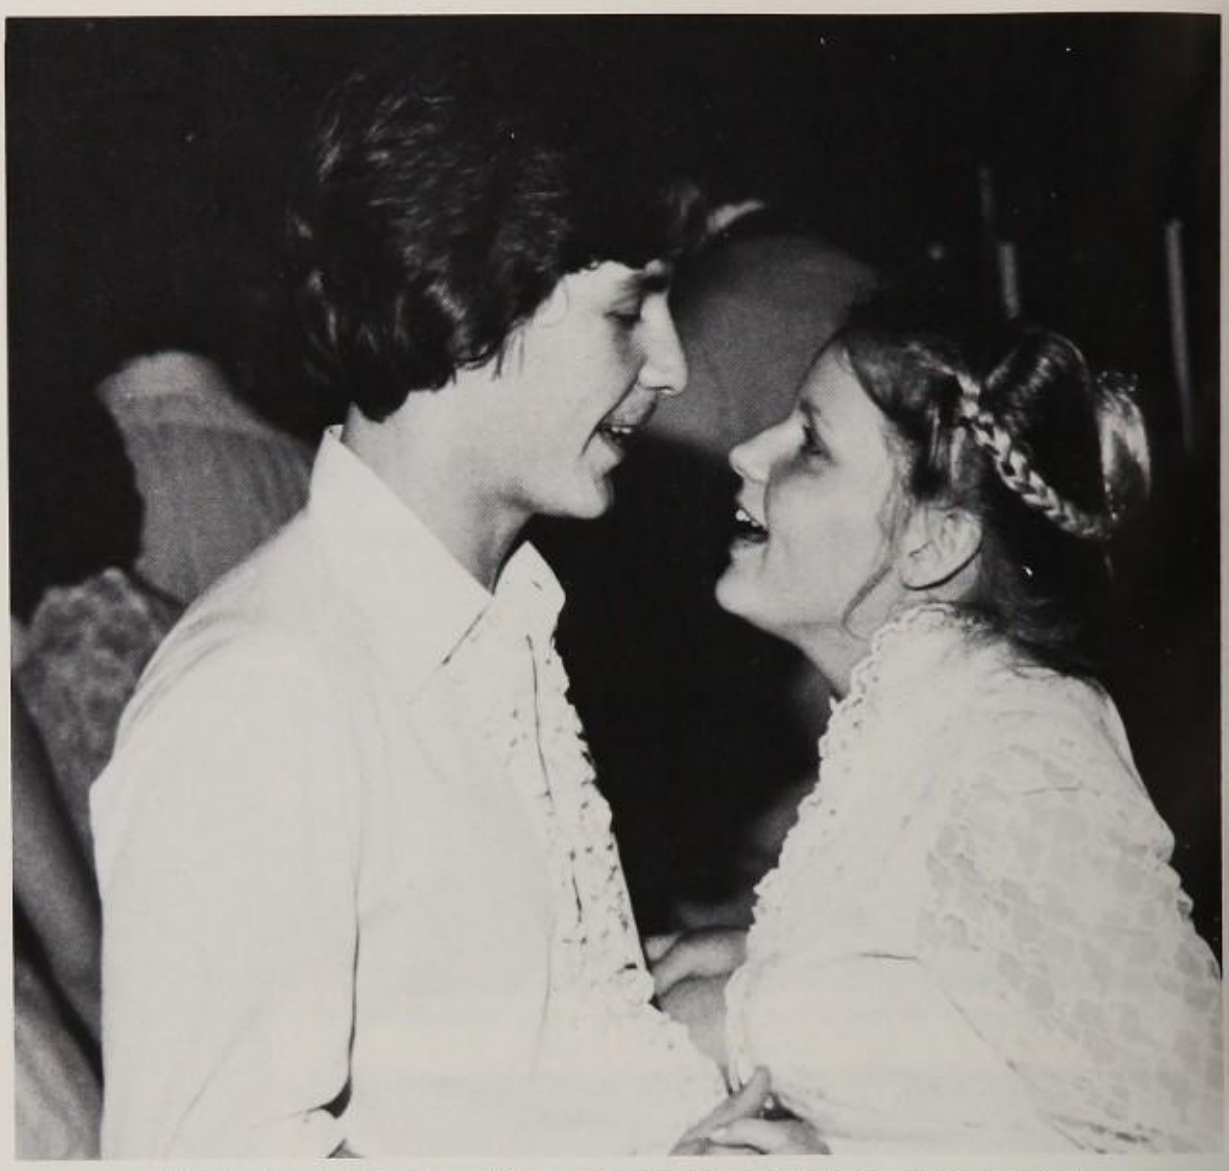
1979 Russell High Prom: A Night

The arbor of roses, the waiters, the band — the Fanatics, the theme — "Moonlight and Roses", the handsomely dressed couples, the streamers, the roses, and the midnight crowning of Queen Dana Dooley, all added together to make a memorable night for everyone who entered the magic atmosphere of the '79 Junior-Senior Prom.

The prom was held on Friday, May 5, and the highly anticipated hours were 9:00 p.m. until 1:00 a.m. The dance was held in the gymnasium where many hours of hard work were spent by diligent juniors readying the space for the enchanting evening.

Helping to make these hours in the decorated gym a very special occasion were the many parents and teachers who served as chaperones along with sophomore boys serving as waiters.

Each couple attending the prom received a favor as they entered the door. The girls accepted a star-shaped stickpin containing a burgandy stone while the boys were given a key chain symbolizing their 1979 Russell Junior-Senior Prom, which was a lovely night to reflect upon.



Jeannie Hibberd and Keith Miller are absorbed with one another's company.

Juniors and Seniors Will Reflect Upon

Many enraptured couples relax in each other's arms as the band plays on.

Macbeth Walker, Jeff Chinn, Kathy Franz, and Kevin Vallance anxiously wait for the midnight crowning of the queen.

Andy Gibbs is pleased with the company of his date Sherry Kelly.

Charis Varnum and Joe Rice enter the impressive garden of "Moonlight and Roses."

Carolyn VanHoose and Newt Lewis dance to the delectable music of the Fanatics.

Four One-Act Plays Highlight

The presentation of four one-act plays by Mr. James Shope's Theatre Arts II and IV classes were held on Friday May 11, Saturday, May 12, and Sunday, May 13.

The first play, "The Bell", had Barbara Clark in the role of Victoria Hanson, Paula Gordon as Lydia Hanson, Pam Roark as Cassie, Chris Edmond as Martha Peters, and Becky Ward as Rose.

The second play featured Marla Taylor portraying the role of Louise, Jeri Downs as her sister, Hannah; Tammy Blankenship as their niece, Alice; Diane Runyon as the Social Worker, Mrs. Calyton; and Leigh Ann Bowe as Lydia, a mysterious little girl in Hannah's past.

"To Burn a Witch" was the dramatic 3rd play about the Salem witch trials with Paula Gordon and Tammy Blankenship portraying Mary Gentry and Ruth Smith, two young girls accused of witchcraft. The persecutors, Dame Stanley and Widow Jones, were portrayed by Jeri Downs and Barbara Clark.

The evening ended with the comedy, "Rise and Shine". A story about two people from different centuries who had missed the resurrection. Hepzibah Mercy Jones was portrayed by Cheri Miller. Her companion, Phillip Sanfor Grant, was played by Robert Yancey. Mrs. Jones' husband Henry who died at the age of 102, was played by Ted Boyd and his second wife Jane Morrison Jones by Marla Taylor.

The tickets for the four plays were $1.00 and $1.50. The plays were under the direction of Mr. James Shope.

Visit the Big Apple

The 1979 Senior Trip started at 10:45 p.m. Saturday, April 7, with all goodbyes said and 44 eager faces boarding the train for their six day excursion.

The actual touring began in Washington, D.C. after breakfast. The group visited the Capitol and had a picture taken. Here seniors first encountered the mysterious orange umbrella. Under its ominous shadow the group boarded their buses and traveled to the White House, Jefferson Memorial, John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts and the Lincoln Memorial. After a luncheon stop at McDonald's it was on to Arlington Cemetery to view the graves of John F. Kennedy, Robert F. Kennedy and the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. After a short, unscheduled stop at the Smithsonian the day ended at the Hampshire Motor In..

The next day was filled with a visit to the Smithsonian Institute where students viewed such one-of-a-kind treasures as the Hope Diamond and Archie and Edith Bunker's chairs. Also a surprise trip to the Botanical Gardens was included. From the Botanical Gardens the group left Washington for New York City — the Big Apple.

The first day in New York was devoted to a sightseeing bus tour of Times Square, Rockefeller Center, Greenwich Village, Herald Square, Gimbel's, Macy's, the Bowrey, Fulton Fish Market, New York Harbor and Wallstreet. Also the group enjoyed a walking tour of Chinatown with a visit to a Chinese temple. Further sightseeing included a boat trip to the Statue of Liberty, the shops of Fifth Avenue, Central Park, Millionaires Row, Riverside Drive, Grant's Tomb, Columbia University, Harlem and a guided tour of the greatest of all Cathedrals — the Cathedral of Saint John the Divine.

Some of the highlights of the stay in New York were: attending a live performance of the famed "Rockettes" and seeing the first-run movie, "The Promise", at Radio City Music Hall; "The New York Experience" at Rockefeller Center; dinner in the wine cellar at Momma Leone's; the Broadway production of Neil Simon's play, "They're Playing Our Song", starring Lucie Arnaz and Robert Klein; Lincoln Center — the home of the Metropolitan Opera, New York Philharmonic, Library and Museum of the Performing Arts, the Julliard School, the Repertory Theatre and the Music Theatre of the Lincoln Center.

At 10:30 a.m. Friday, April 13, only two and one-half hours late, the battered group from Russell arrived in Catlettsburg after an exhausting trip that left them with memories that will last a lifetime.

Where's Toby?
Gary and Terri looking for a jukebox in the basement of the Hampshire Motor Inn.
Searching of the National Zoo.
The two mile, up-hill run to catch the orange umbrella and the changing of the guard at Arlington!
Where's Toby?!
The immortal words of Karnak, "We saw the two most important documents in American History: the Declaration of Independence and . . . Nixon's resignation!!
Group three's all here.
What happened to all the food at IHOP.
Asking who was comical Sam McConnell.
Wondering how to get from New Jersey to New York, by land or by boat?
Realizing you're really under water!
Susan Franklin "LOVES" Nick forever.
Mr. Wallenfelsz's new ashtrays: DANISHES.
Robert Redford's apartment.
Where's Toby?!?
The new hairdos on the Circle Line Ferry. Walking all the way around the Statue of Liberty before finding the door.
Looking for the door to the stairs in the lobby of the Edison.
Wondering how Chuck really got on both sides of the picture.
Who was hung at "The New York Experience."
If there were screens on both sides.
Where's Toby?!?
Seeing Eric Estrada.
Why Mr. Klaiber hung around the Edison Theatre.
What movie Karnak saw across the street.
Judy enjoyed herself at the United Nations.
What happened to "ANNIE."
Dining in a wine cellar.
Who got sick on top of the Empire State Building.
Saying, "It isn't the tallest?"
Hearing, "NO MORE FOOD."
Did Toby make it?

The cooks and janitors are branches of the school staff that make valuable contributions to Russell High School in both student well being and school appearance. Both jobs require dedication and long hours of quality service.

The cooks maintain the kitchen and prepare food. Three of the cooks have cooking degrees and go back for refresher courses. The cafeteria workers strive to give the cafeteria a restaurant atmosphere by home baking the desserts and serving food in individual bowls and plates.

In addition to managing the cafeteria, Mrs. Taylor manages the book store.

The custodians also deserve mention. They clean up and prepare the school for another school year.

Bertie French and Anna Clark put finishing touches on students' meal.

Staff of 12 Produces Revil and Revilonian

Lisa Church faithfully bills establishments for advertising in the Revil and Revilonian.

The Journalism Department has the sole responsibility of creating and producing the Revil and the Revilonian.

The work load placed on the staff members was so great this year that for the first time sophomores were allowed to join the class.

Another new addition to the staff was a new advisor. While a predominantly first year staff was adjusting to the rapid pace of yearbooking, Mrs. Watson, advisor, was learning along with them.

Mrs. Watson was aided with the production of the Revil by Chuck Bartle, Editor, and Wendy Picton, Assistant Editor. Help with the Revilonian came from Diane Roe, Editor-in-Chief, and Wendy Picton, Assistant Editor.

for School and Community

Jim Lyon asks for helpful suggestions during an evening Beta Club meeting.

The Beta Club was very active for the 1978-79 school year. The first project in which the club participated was canvassing the Bellefonte area to raise money for the Cerebral Palsy School of Ashland.

In December ten members attended the Beta Convention which was held at the Galt House in Louisville. Also in December, the club sponsored a Christmas party with children of Greenup County as special guests.

In February the club sponsored the Sweetheart Dance. Paula Gordon was crowned queen by club president, Jim Lyon.

In March the club observed National Beta Week. Each day of the week Betas did a service to someone in the school or in the community. Various members visited rest homes in the area while others honored the faculty, custodians, cooks, and the front office staff in some way. The annual Beta Breakfast was held during this week and on that Sunday members attended the Meade Methodist Church in Russell.

Other activities for the year included the Beta Variety Show and the Beta Banquet.

Beta Club was sponsored by Miss Fouts and Mrs. Duncan. The officers were: Jim Lyon, President; Angela Duff, Vice President; Barbie Clark, Secretary; Mona Keaton, Treasurer; Diane Roe, Chaplain; Kathy Kidd, Assistant Chaplain.

Grady Walter displays his ability to look and sound like a candy store door at the Beta Variety Show.

Sherry Workman, Lisa Bradford, Mary Jo Rowe, act out three of the twelve years of school for the Beta Variety Show.

Prayer Group Inspires Students

The weekly meetings of the Prayer Group were held on Wednesday mornings in study hall. The meetings were opened each week by Diane Roe, who read devotions and lead in prayer. There were citizens and ministers speaking of things pertaining to Christian life and the average life of a high school student. Membership was open to all RHS students.

Stephanie Lester and Cindy Walthour, secretary-treasurer, participate in the Prayer Group Players.

PRAYER GROUP OFFICERS: Victor Langdon, Vice President; Sheila Vest, President; Steve Croley, Special Projects Chairman; Diane Roe, Chaplain.

F.C.A. Reflects Christian Ideals

FCA OFFICERS: Beth Gardner, President; Bill Fred Madden, Vice President; Brenda Feltrop, Treasurer; Melody Bramblette, Secretary.

The weekly meetings of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes provided an opportunity for members to further their self awareness through faith. Breakfast was held on a weekly basis before school.

After the breakfast there was a short recreation time during which various sports were played. Mr. Gilbert was the club sponsor.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is responsible for the presentation of the Roger Vanover Memorial Scholarship. This scholarship, which is worth one hundred dollars, is presented to a deserving Senior athlete.

Officers were Beth Gardner, President; Bill Fred Madden, Vice President; Brenda Feltrop, Treasurer; Melody Bramblette, Secretary.

The largest of Russell's clubs is the Future Business Leaders of America or F.B.L.A. F.B.L.A. has 117 members and all are members of the business department. F.B.L.A. stresses skills that include typing, office procedures and public speaking. In addition to the serious aspects of FBLA, it sponsors the snowball dance, Halloween parties and get acquainted parties.

The Russell F.B.L.A. secured several first place awards in regional competition. First place winners were Jackie Conley, Cindy Gustin, Robin Douglas and Sheila Vest. The bulletin board and the scrapbook took first place. Designing these were Sheila Vest, Beth Gardner, Kennetha OBroff, Caren Salow and Tammy Brown. Concluding the year was the election of Robin Buckland as the region 4 president.

Student Government: The Student

Student Government, sponsored by Mr. Jerry Klaiber, has been very active this year. Under the leadership of President Stephanie Lester the club has instigated several projects to get the student body involved. Some of these projects were: helping to highlight the winning football season by sponsoring the Homecoming Parade as well as the Homecoming Dance, showing the movie "Silent Running" free of charge before Christmas break, setting up an exchange program with Ironton High School for the purpose of trading information on how other schools are run and sending delegations to Paul Blazer and Huntington East High Schools for TSAC meetings.

Other activities helped to add to the appearance of the school. Some of these were: giving the Senior Court a thorough cleaning and placing two picnic tables and three electrical spools in it, moving a t.v. into the student union which they kept under strict control and also providing the t.v. stand, and painting the bathrooms in the gymnasium.

The club purchased a gavel for the president. Plans are being made to place a plaque in the Senior Court, in dedication to all the Seniors of Russell High School.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT OFFICERS: Mona Keaton, Secretary; Diane Roe, Vice President; Stephanie Lester, President; Sheila Vest, Treasurer.

Students Visit Washington, D.C.

CLOSEUP PARTICIPANTS: Mr. Grady Walter, Howard Meade, and Tammy Blankenship.

The CloseUp program, which was attended by Tammy Blankenship, Howard Meade, and Mr. Grady Walter, was designed to provide an opportunity for high school students and teachers to experience our government in action. Participants developed an understanding of government and how to effectively participate in it.

Each day consisted of an exhaustive series of seminars, workshops, and question-and-answer sessions with various members of the House and Senate, judges, reporters, and politicians.

While visiting Washington, Tammy, Howard, and Mr. Grady Walter had the opportunity to meet Kentucky Congressman, Carl D. Perkins; Kentucky Senator, Wendall Ford; and West Virginia Representative, Nick RaHall. In addition to the workshops, seminars, and briefings, the three also participated in a three hour tour of historical sites which included the Washington Monument, the Jefferson Memorial, the White House, and Arlington Cemetery.

"A little bit of pride will go a long, long way," is the slogan for the Junior Achievement of America which is in its seventh year at RHS.

The purposes of Junior Achievement are to develop future business leaders by a method of trial and error and to give members a chance to learn leadership and responsibility.

Students in JA receive a thorough background in the different aspects of conducting a business. They form a company, sell stock in the company, produce a product, and sell the finished product. They must also keep accurate bookkeeping records, pay stock dividends, make an annual report, and liquidate the company at the end of the year.

Chorus Has Many Specialized Fields

The Russell High School chorus, under the direction of Helen Myers, started its active year with performances at local clubs and organizations during the Christmas season. Performing with the main chorus were various solos and ensembles, the combo, Chorus II, "Taste of Grass" and two bell choirs.

The chorus presented a Christmas concert with the Russell High School Concert Band and a spring concert featuring various solos. Members of the chorus attended both the Morehead Music Clinic and the clinic of the Paramounts Arts Center.

This year 3 members, Nicky Blevins, David Bolte and Chuck Bartle, went to the Kentucky All State Chorus in Louisville. The group participated in two days of practice and a performance of Thomas Hayden's "Masses in Time of War."

The choral season ended with the graduation ceremonies. The chorus sang "Alleluia, All Glory Be to God" and "I Will Never Pass This Way Again."

The Year in Band

Bill Renzi keeps his hands warm with Napoleon's style.

The 1978-79 Russell High Band went through many new experiences last year. One of the most important changes for the band was the acquiring of a new band director, Mr. Eddie Prichard. Other additions to the band were: a four member rifle squad, buying new flags and flag poles, and new uniforms for the percussion section.

The year began at Morehead State University for one week of band camp. Band camp was followed by a month of practice and hard work in preparation for the upcoming football season.

The band participated in many parades and competitions throughout the year. They traveled all over the area and even out of state, winning many awards.

There were three big events of the year. The first event was hosting their own band festival. The second was the trip to Knoxville. The third was performing the annual spring concert at the Paramont Arts Center.

Kevin Bayes masters the art of playing the tuba.

ALL STATE BAND WINNERS: Mike DeLong and Paige Kenney.

Russell Band Under New Leadership

This year the band was under the leadership of Mr. Eddie Prichard. Mr. Prichard is a former Ashland High student, graduate of Morehead State University, and former band director of Pikeville High School.

Mr. Prichard's new ideas and enthusiasm made last year's band one of the best that Russell has ever seen. His pre-game and half-time shows kept spectators in their seats throughout the shows.

Mr. Prichard's skill and education helped the band to win the following awards: 1st Place, Greenup Old Fashioned Days; Marching Invitational; 3rd Place Division III Parade, Dogwood Arts Festival; Outstanding Rifle Corps; Outstanding Percussion Unit; 3rd Place, Bath County Band Festival; Recreation Bowl Band Winners; and 4th Place "AAA" Large, Ashland Band Festival.

All in all, the year was a total success, and much of the credit is due to Mr. Prichard.

School Spirit Boosted by Pep Band

The Pep Band and Stage Band are groups of students who volunteer their time and skills to help support athletic programs and to perform at various places throughout the year.

The Pep Band was present at all home basketball games. They played before the game, during half-time, and at occasions when a little musical support was needed. The Pep Band lifted the spirits of the crowd and the team at games and pep rallies when the school song and other songs were played.

The Stage Band entertained at various places throughout the year and performed a few concerts. No matter where they played, however, they always left a favorable impression on those who had the pleasure of hearing them play.

Showing their award winning skill, Eddie Worrell and Mike DeLong concentrate on the tempo.

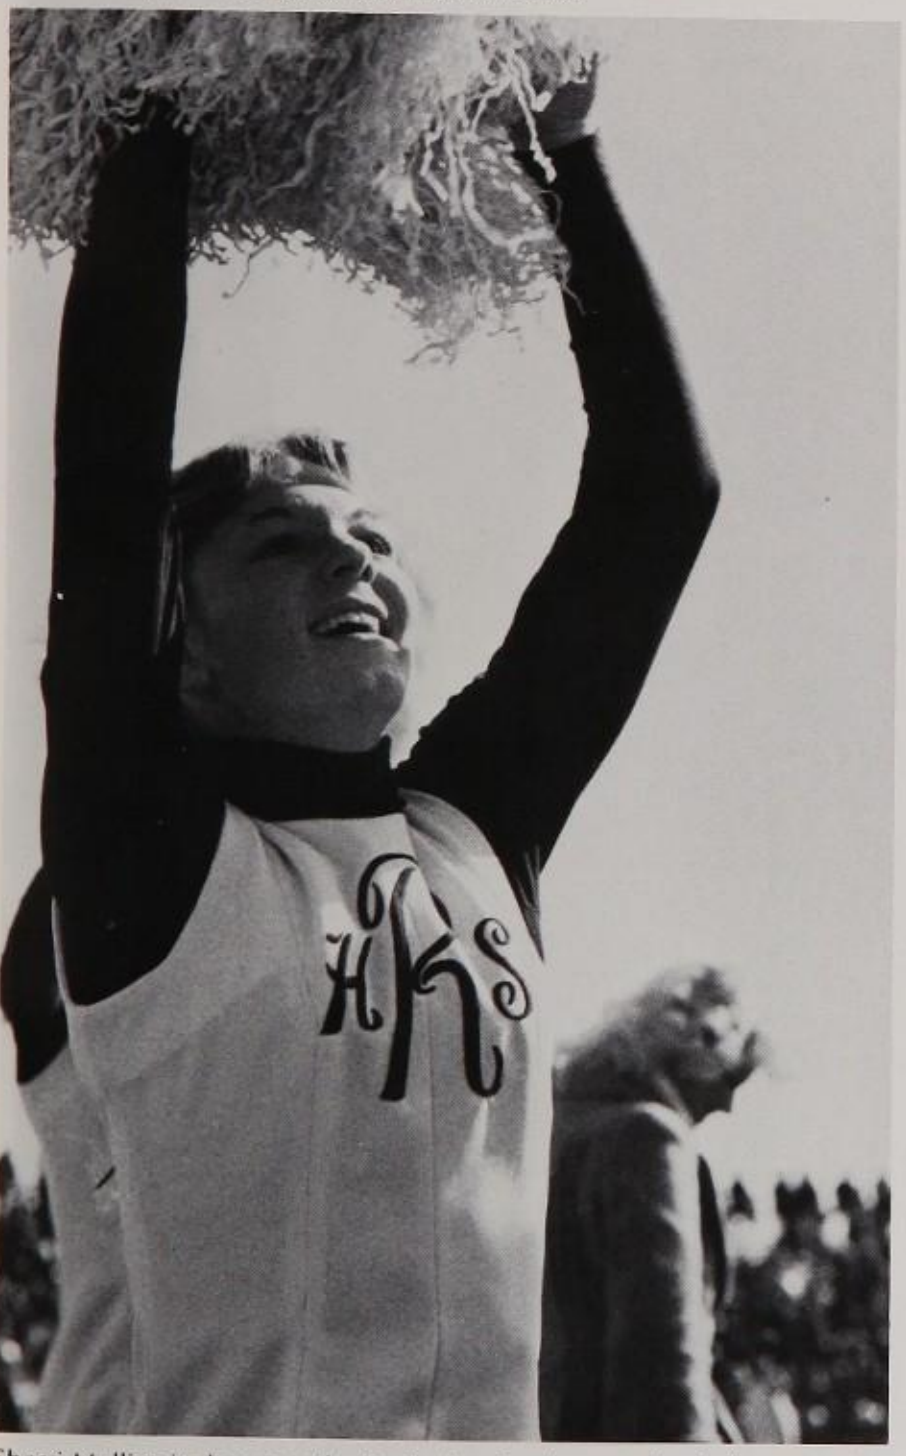
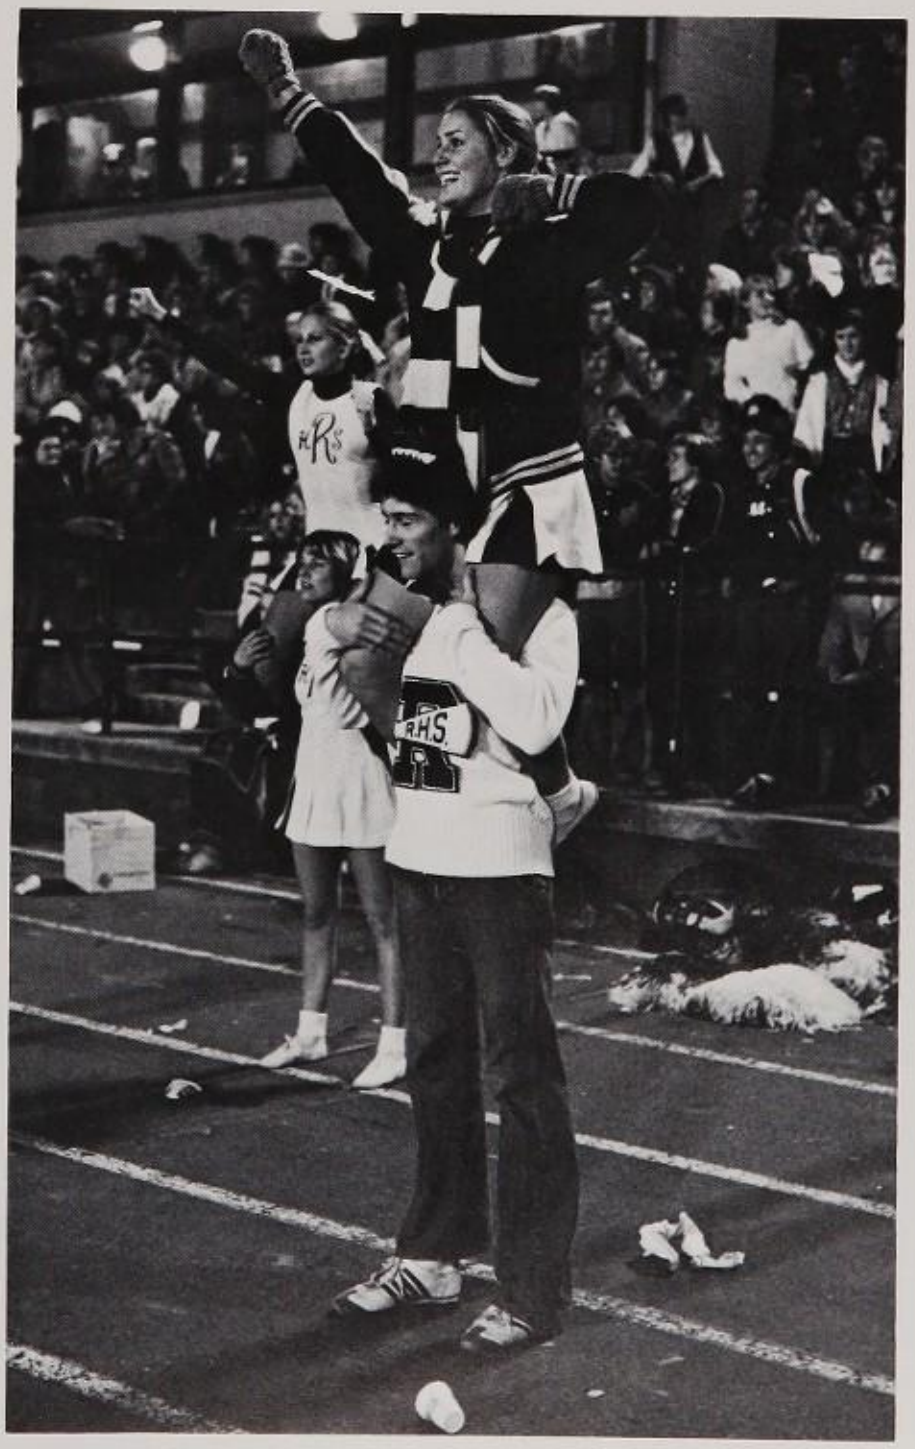
Cheerleaders and Pep Squad Excite Crowd

The Russell High School cheerleaders are most noted at the sidelines cheering the football and basketball teams to victory and leading in pep rally enthusiasm. However, cheerleading is a sport in itself with competition of its own. When off the sidelines they are competing in cheerleading clinics and district-regional events. At the cheerleading camp R.H.S. cheerleaders participated with 75 other teams. They placed in the top ten squads and tied for first in pom pon competition. They also took second of KAPOS camp.



Sherri Mullins is shown enthusiastically cheering our football team at the championship.



A smile can go a long way for morale as demonstrated by Paula Gordon, Brian Caniff, Dana Dooley and Anne Holland. This cheer inspired a surprising comeback.

Devils...

This year's football team is something to be proud of. They have again captured the District Championship with full effort from both offensive and defensive playing. Their first victory in the district was over Belfrey 7-6; the second was over Johnson Central 14-6.

In an over-all view of the season the team came out with an 8 and 3 record in their regular season.

Russell Track Records Broken . . .

The girls' track team was headed by a new coach for the '79 season, Mr. James Epling. The assistant coaches and helpers were Ms. Liz Trabandt, Mrs. Betty Pennington, Mrs. Billy Slone, Miss Lisa Kidd, Mr. Bill Parker, and Mr. Shayne Fletcher. The events participated in for this year were:

Discus: Gina Gollihue, Cindy Madden, Nancy McConnell, Shelly Stevens.

Shot Put: Regina Carroll, Gina Gollihue.

High Jump: Mica Atkinson, Beth Gardner, Denaye Tackett.

Long Jump: Kim Rankin, Yvonne Yancey.

Hurdles: Brenda Feltrop, Lisa Helton.

Sprints: Lisa Helton, Cindy Madden, Kim Rankin, Chris Smith, Denaye Tackett, Yvonne Yancey.

Relays: Mica Atkinson, Regina Carroll, Beth Gardner, Lisa Helton, Leslie Howard, Cindy Madden, Chris Smith, Denaye Tackett.

Distance: Beth Gardner, Melanie Kidd, Debbie LeBrun.

The following nine girls competed in the State Track Meet: Regina Carroll, Brenda Feltrop, Beth Gardner, Lisa Helton, Cindy Madden, Kim Rankin, Chris Smith, Denaye Tackett, and Yvonne Yancey. Two new school records were set during the 1979 track season. Beth Gardner set one in the 880 yard run and Yvonne Yancey set the other in the long jump.

Lisa Helton knows that a little pain is worth the glory of winning.

Cindy Madden releases the discus in hopes of long yardage.

Regina Carroll gives her event complete concentration.

Mica Atkinson stretches to clear the bar.

The Russell Boys' Track Team had a very successful season. The team was coached by Mr. James Epling. The following eleven members of the team took a first or second place at regionals to qualify for the state track meet: Scott Boyd — Pole Vault; Kelly Cantrell — Long Jump, Triple Jump, High Hurdles; Bryant Carroll — Mile Relay, 880 Relay; Doug Fultz — Mile Run, 880 Run, Mile Relay; Mitch Julien — Hurdles; Brad Mooney — High Jump; Eric Patterson — Mile Relay, 880 Relay; Brent Slone — Mile Relay, 880 Relay; Mark Stevens — Mile Run; Bill Thompson — Pole Vault. The seniors of the team were Kelly Cantrell, Jon Lowery, Danny Miller, and Randy Pack.

Swim Team — Cross Country Receives Honors

SWIM TEAM

The swimming and diving team got organized later than usual this year, and they had only eight regular team members — 6 boys and 2 girls.

During the year they had four dual meets — 3 away and 1 at Paul Blazer High School pool, where Russell holds their home meets. The home meet was the high point of the season as Russell downed Ashland.

This year the AAA and AA swimming and diving team were combined for state championship meet purposes and consequently all Kentucky high school swimmers and divers had to compete in one of four regionals in order to qualify for state. Russell's region was region four, the central Kentucky region, with many large schools from the Lexington area competing. All the eight team members qualified for state competition.

Dan Watson won the state diving competition and will be going to national competition.

CROSS COUNTRY

The 1978-79 edition of the Russell Cross Country team was dominated by mostly sophomores and juniors. There were only two senior members, Danny Miller and Jon Lowery.

The center of attention on the team was Doug Fultz, the outstanding junior, who won first in the region and fourth in the state. Others that qualified for state competition were Mark Stevens, Bryant Carroll, Jon Lowery, and Danny Miller.

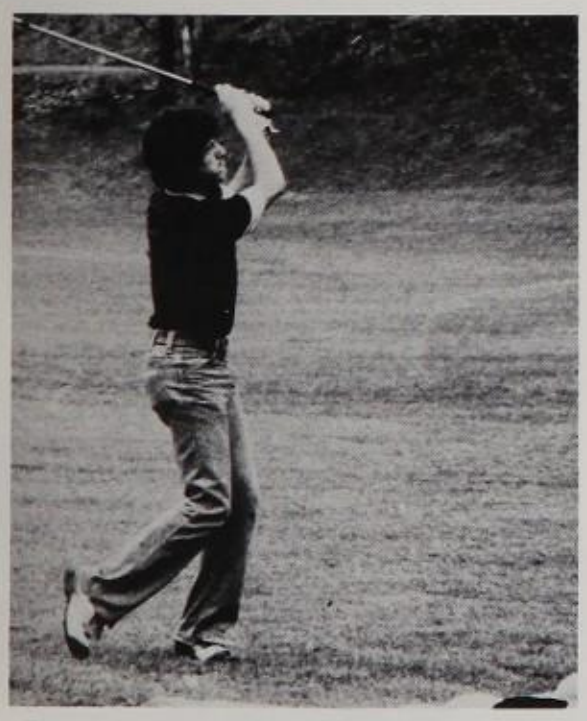
CROSS COUNTRY: Row 1: Doug Fultz, Jon Lowery, Bobby Herron, Bryant Carroll, Danny Miller, Jeff Firestine, Bennie Dickerson

Golf Team Takes 11th in State

GOLF TEAM: Rich Freeman, Kevin Robinson, Danny Humphrey, Mike Skeens, Hugh Napier, Rick Whitman, Doug Freeman, Coach Meredith.

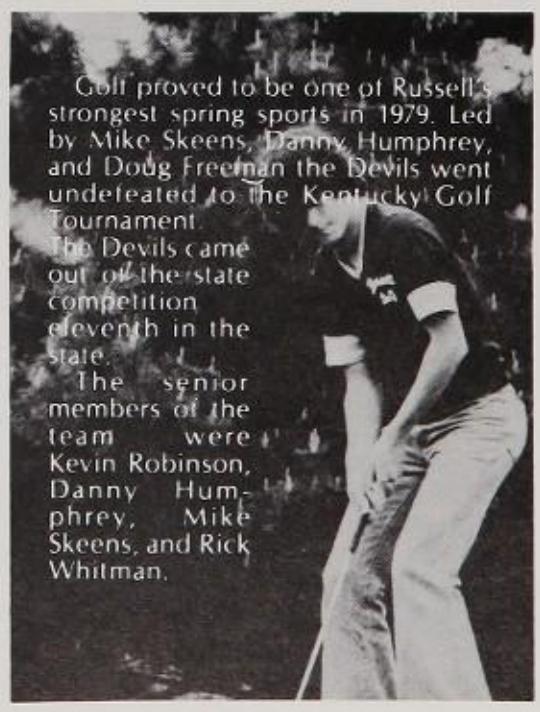
Mike Skeens tries for the final birdie.

Doug Freeman, Hugh Napier, and Mike Skeens warm up before the final meet.



Doug Freeman takes a shot from the fairway.

Danny Humphrey watches as the ball goes into the hole.



Golf proved to be one of Russell's strongest spring sports in 1979. Led by Mike Skeens, Danny Humphrey, and Doug Freeman the Devils went undefeated to the Kentucky Golf Tournament.

The Devils came out of the state competition eleventh in the state.

The senior members of the team were Kevin Robinson, Danny Humphrey, Mike Skeens, and Rick Whitman.

This year's Russell Red Devil baseball team trained well and knew how to win. This can be seen in the final record, 18-9.

On May 17, graduation night, the last game of the season was played away from home. Mark Mellinger, Mike Peffer, Paul Gulluim, and Bill Cyrus, all graduating seniors, forfeited graduation ceremonies in order to play with the team. True dedication such as this helped the team win the opportunity to play in the District and Regional Tournament.

Awards were as follows: Leadership — Billy Ray Cyrus (Senior); 110% — Stuart Dale Hensley (Senior); Most Improved — Mike Peffer (Senior); Golden Glove — Mark Mellinger (Senior); Slugging Percentage — John Watkins (Junior); Most Valuable Player — highest batting avg., most RBI's and most homeruns — Paul Gillium (Senior).

Members of the 400 Club are: Paul Gillium and John Watkins.

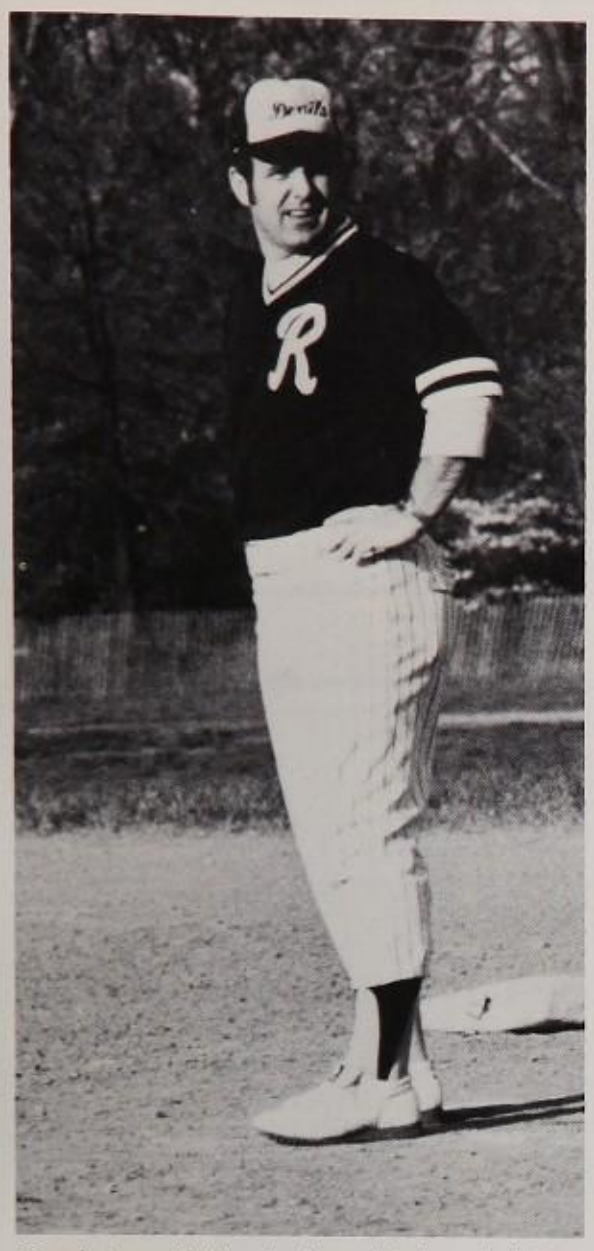
John Watkins makes use of a cinder block as he concentrates on the upcoming game.

Coach Clinton Gilbert applauds a well executed play.

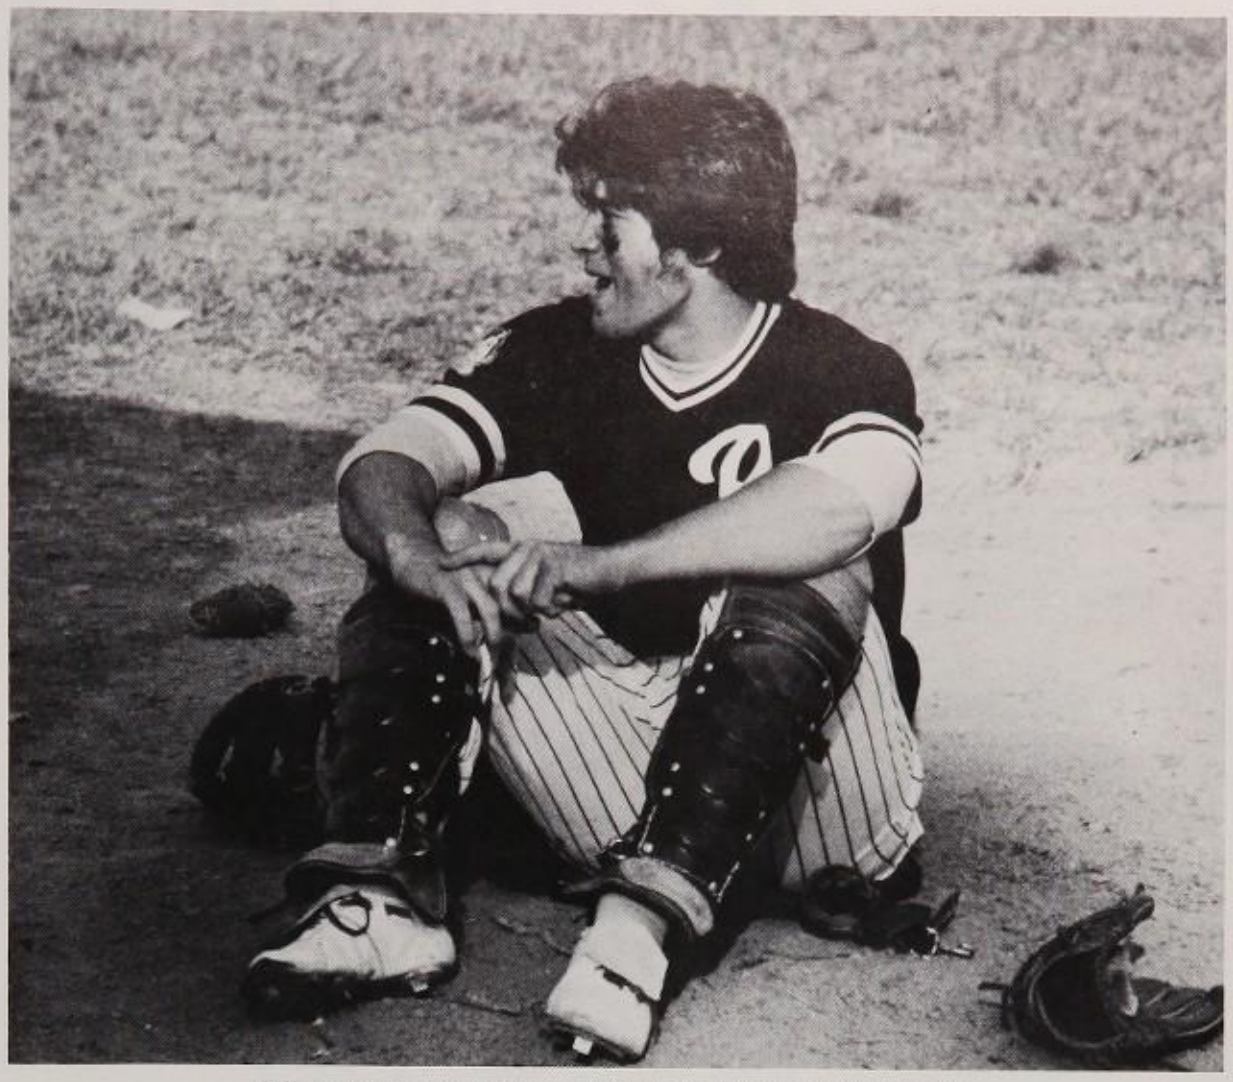
A tense moment on the playing field is reflected in the expressions of Alvin Bailey, Stuart Hensley, and Jeff Hensley as they watch from the dugout.

A determined Mark VanHorn beats the third baseman to the base.

True Dedication



Coach Jerry Klaiber looks at his bench full of DEVILS.



Bill Cyrus shouts words of wisdom to his fellow teammates.

There's an advertising man in Ashland doing New York quality work.

At Ashland prices.

You don't have to go to New York to get high quality advertising.

Dave Carter has been doing some of the best advertising in the country since 1965. In those 12 years, he has won more than 140 awards for outstanding advertising – including two "Andy" awards given by the Advertising Club of New York. (The "Andy" awards are the "Oscars" of the advertising business.)

Our small group is now able to take on a limited number of new projects. If you'd like to see a portfolio of some of our outstanding work, drop a note to David E. Carter, P.O. Box 591, 1500 Carter Avenue, Ashland, KY 41101. Or call (606) 324-1415.

We'll show you work that looks like it was done on Madison Avenue. At prices that look like Carter Avenue.

the Challenge

From coal to the atom to the sun . . . the universe pulsates with energy in many forms.

The challenge is to find ways . . . new ways . . . to utilize the earth's vast storehouse of fuels in providing the energy needed for this nation to continue to be great.

The means — innovative technologies, exotic engineering, dynamic architecture — exciting advances that must come if man is to tap Nature's lode for the energies he needs.

From the smallest part of the universe to the largest . . . that's the scope of the energy field today. The opportunity for personal achievement is infinite; the challenge, one that must be met.

4¼ million Americans were 18 this year.

Every year, Armco helps some young people start developing skills in new jobs. These jobs are created by reinvesting profits in equipment and plants. In fact, at Armco in 1976, it cost about $55,600 to make one new job. When profits are lean, opportunities for new jobs are leaner, too. So when you hear people putting down profits, remember they are also putting down the job you would like to have. Speak up for it!

TO THOSE WHO ARE TO FOLLOW:

This has been our second year as active members of the yearbook staff. For those who have not had the pleasure of encountering the hectic — almost insane — pace of journalism, we have prepared our final statement to enable you to better understand the dedication needed to survive as one of a rare breed known as "Russell High School Journalism Student."

New advisor . . . student teachers . . . no Homecoming pictures — "camera trouble" . . . late for class . . . new typewriter . . . initants . . . aerosol spray . . . no air . . . SOPHOMORES . . . empty thermos . . . no intercom . . . hall roaming 101 . . . no windows . . . phone calls . . . now "Hun" . . . Reflections of Friends

Paul Raymond Brown

December 14, 1961 — December 7, 1978

Jon,

I don't know how to begin this! We've been friends ever since I can remember. I don't know whether I can put my feelings ~~into~~ for our friendship into words - For once I can't find words to say. Our friendship means a lot to me! We've gone through so much together - church, school etc. activities. You're one of the sweetest people I know - your humor brightens my darkest days - even when I'm not in the mood to be humored! Always stay the same sweet Jon that everyone knows and loves - You're something special to everyone!

Love n friends always,
Jennelle

P.S. I tried to write a page but I ran out of time and words!

Jen,

Well, where should I start? you tell "me" to

To start out we didn't know each other till you tried to throw me off the ledge at Steph's house. But I enjoyed it. you a very special person and I'll always think of you of a person that words can't explain.
Well, lets see Oct. 11? That's a great day? I hope you remember what it was? ya asked me to go with ya, remember? "SURE" I hope you can find trust in me no matter what happens because I'll always trust you in what ever you do? Because everything is built up on trust? you everything that I've ever wanted in a guy? you make me happy when I am depressed and I hope I can do the same for you? It's not like I can trust anybody with anything but I know I can and always will be able to trust you? I know that I can show my feelings very easy to someone I LOVE?
But I understand also how you can't show yours all the time. Plus I also told you it makes me feel very good when you do? so I've always wanted someone to care & love me for so long? and I hope its you 4-ever?
We both know it has to end someday?
But that's just reality? we both know that?
But as long as our love is as strong as it is now I feel like our love for each other will never end? and if we both feel that way THEN it won't? I've run out of words to tell ya how I feel? I don't think words "SORRY will do it? I think I'll just have to show my love in a special way? there's nothing in this world I'd rather have and that's YOU? I LOVE you?

Jennifer

Jon,

Well, "Jon-Jon", where can I start? Even though I've only known you for about 6 months I feel as if I've known you forever. I hope you never forget me, because how could I forget someone who is so sweet & so good-looking as well (yes, I'm talking about you!). I'm really glad we got into the same J.A. Company. It would be such a bore without all your sick humor. Maybe we can arrange it where we'll have it together next year, too. Anyway I want us to keep in touch, always. It would really be nice if we could get together sometime in the future. Sorry we can't now, but you know how it is. I hope you & Tim had fun celebrating my birthday. We'll have to get together & do some celebrating sometime. Maybe your birthday? I can imagine how wild it would be. Anyway it would be fun with you. Maybe we could go see Rush or Pink Floyd sometime. Just remember all the great times we've had together---exploring the unknown?! "Stupidhead" (we still have to fight about that), holding my coat for ransom, taking my car keys & making me think I locked them up, blue noses, birthday Snickers bar, arguing about who's better, Boyd County or Russell (I still think we are), I like pizza ha!, I could write a page on all the fun we've had.

Well, I said I'd write a book, but this is about as close as I can come to it. I just want you to know this is the most I've ever written in anybody's annual. I'll always remember what an all-around great guy you are. It's nice to have friends like you. If you ever need anything, or you just want to talk, call me up anytime! Be good & stay out of trouble!

Love ya always,
Lynn Felty

Father Fout,

To my very favorite father (haha)
We've been friends forever it seems.
Always remember the fun times we had in Doc's & Karnacks class.
Remember the seances we used to have in Sherry's basement?? And when we went to see "STARWARS" that was fun! And those letters you wrote to me while I was in Scotland?
I still have them I almost went cross-eyed trying to read them.
Keep calling Sheriya I in the summer (remember you used to sing to us on the phone?) Well I hope we have a fun year this year in history. I'm glad you're sitting next to me!

love

Les

P.S. I hope you write to me when I move!!

Wow, what can I say?? We've been friends for a long time, well, 4 years anyway! You'll never know how much all those great times mean to me! Remember going to see "Star Wars"? You have to come over to my house on July 4, 1980, see, I'm already asking you in advance! What about the time you came over to Lesley's & scared me to death? Also what about the Doobie Brothers concert and also what about all the great times last year in Kamak's class, what was it -20 tumbles or something like that? By the way, I thought you were going to teach me how to fly an airplane, I'm holding you to that!! I'll never ever forget you! Good Luck Always!!

Lots of Love,
Sherry "81"
Kelly

P.S. I thought you were the cutest Powder Puff candidate!!!!

So the cutest guy I know in the junior class. I mean it, too! I wish I could have gone to the Homecoming Dance with you but you wouldn't ask me. Oh well, maybe next year. Call me sometimes.

Love you always.
Ginger

Jon,
Words fail me for the first time ever. You're terrific guy, your crazy but I was going to say your crazy but that just doesn't get it, your beyond crazy. It's really something to be able to have so much fun in a place that doesn't lend its self to humor. Church would sure be boring without you. I wish you luck in the future. (Church) with that's right, thats right I should wish the world best of the luck 'cause it they'll need it. Lotsa Love "80"
Angie

Jon,
I think you're a real neat, cute, funny, sweet, great person & I'd have really liked knowing you! I'd hope we become better friends this year & next. Stay cool & never forget me.

Love ya.
Kim
